THIS WEEK'S READINGS

EZEK 2:2-5

The sons are defiant and obstinate and they shall know that there is a prophet among them.

PS 122 R.2

Our eyes are on the Lord till he show us his mercy.

2 COR 12:7-10

I shall be very happy to make my weaknesses my special boast so that the power of Christ may stay over me.

MARK 6:1-6

A prophet is despised only in his own country.

REFLECTION ON THE READINGS

Jesus' home town is not named here. The crowds there refuse to accept him, stating that they believe they know he is the carpenter, the son of Mary a hint of scandal there: no father is named). They know the members of his family by name, so where did he get these big ideas from? Mark states that because of their lack of faith, Jesus was powerless to work miracles there, except for a few cures.

OTHER NOTICES

ASSISTED SUICIDE

Assisted Dying Bill

The Health Committee at the Scottish Parliament has recently issued a short survey to obtain views of people in Scotland on the proposed bill on Assisted Dying. The survey is open until 16th August 2024. It is a short survey and easy to complete online. It is important that as many people as possible complete the survey to give the Parliament a true picture of the level of opposition to this bill.

If you use this QR code it will take you to the survey.
